The Farm

In this tour you will take a one hour hike at our farm. While you are there you will see where cacao trees flourish, and you will get your mind blown away with genuine facts about cacao. You will get to see varieties, more than just cacao trees. In a diverse jungle, plants and animals, We will show you our medicinal plants and our vegetable garden. We then complete the tour with making your own fresh sugar Cane juice.. Yum!

For this tour you will need:

- Insect repellent
- Sunscreen
- Hiking boots
- Outdoor clothing such as; long pants, long sleeve shirt and/or a hat.
- Water bottle (we will provide refills)
- Camera and Binoculars for unexpected Birds or Monkey Surprises!

The Chocolate Making Session

Back to the chocolate facility, here you will be greeted by exotic aroma of a chocolate heaven. As you make your way to chocolate heaven, where a table awaits you, to indulge in a hot cup of hot chocolate, sample some of our naturally flavored chocolate and make your own chocolate using our stone tools.

The Chocolate Lunch

Immediately after making your chocolate we take a look into our processing facility, and our gift shop. After which lunch is served by the one and only Chocolate Queen, "Abelina Cho". For an unforgettable, , Maya cuisine. Like everyone says" sauce is boss", if you have heard of the chocolate Queen then you've heard of the CHOCOLATE CHICKEN! Yes that's right IXCACAO is the home of the original chocolate chicken made with our very own dark chocolate. This lunch will give you energy of a lifetime.
